

Some results concerning the spectral regularity of magnetic Hamiltonians

Speaker: Radu Purice

(Institute of Mathematics of the Romanian Academy)

Abstract

I shall report on some results obtained in collaboration with Horia Cornean, concerning the behavior of the spectrum of a large class of Hamiltonians with regular (bounded and smooth) magnetic fields when the intensity of the magnetic field is varied; we study both the Hausdorff distance between spectra, and the variation of the edges of the spectral islands.